Who is Reclamation Technologies, Inc.?

Reclamation Technologies was started in 1997 by Kevin Schatz. Kevin graduated from Luther College in 1988 with a B.A in Biology. He went on to the University of Minnesota, graduating with a M.S in Environmental Health with specialization in Environmental Chemistry.

Our innovations in this industry have gotten the attention of many leading manufacturers of refrigerants. Kevin's knowledge and expertise have made Reclamations Technologies a leader in reclaiming and separating refrigerants.

We are very proud of what we have accomplished the last 20 years. We hope to continue as a leader in the Refrigerant Service Industry for 20 more years.
